This means that God is beyond our limited human understanding and can only be truly known through direct experience.

The Sri Guru Granth Sahib also teaches that the soul is an eternal part of God. Each soul has come to this world to experience life and to learn from its experiences. The goal of life is to achieve union with God, which can be achieved through meditation, devotion, and selfless service.

Here are some additional spiritual gems from the Sri Guru Granth Sahib:

- "God is the source of all creation, and we are all connected to each other."

Worldly Wisdom

In addition to its spiritual teachings, the Sri Guru Granth Sahib also contains a wealth of practical wisdom on how to live a successful and fulfilling life in the world. The Sikh Gurus taught that it is important to be truthful, honest, and compassionate in all our dealings with others. They also stressed the importance of hard work and service to others.

Here are some additional worldly gems from the Sri Guru Granth Sahib:
