These are just a few of the questions that Now That's Funny explores. This comprehensive and hilarious guide to the world of comedy takes you on a journey through the history of the genre, from the slapstick of Buster Keaton to the witty repartee of Dorothy Parker.

Along the way, you'll learn about the different genres of comedy, from stand-up to sketch comedy to satire. You'll also discover the theories of comedy that have been developed over the centuries, from Aristotle's theory of the ridiculous to Freud's theory of the unconscious.

But Now That's Funny is more than just a dry academic treatise on comedy. It's also a celebration of the comedians who have made us laugh the hardest. From Charlie Chaplin to Lucille Ball to Dave Chappelle, you'll learn about the lives and careers of the greatest comedians of all time.

So whether you're a lifelong comedy fan or you're just looking for a good laugh, Now That's Funny is the perfect book for you. With its engaging writing, hilarious anecdotes, and in-depth analysis, Now That's Funny will make you laugh out loud and give you a new appreciation for the art of comedy.
