A Decade of Proven Strategies for Transformation

Since its initial publication in 2013, 'Radical Changes for Associations' has become an indispensable guide for association leaders seeking to transform their organizations. This 10th Anniversary Edition has been meticulously updated to reflect the latest challenges and opportunities facing associations today.

Drawing on a decade of research and practical experience, the authors present 10 fundamental principles for radical change:

1. Challenge the status quo.
2. Embrace innovation.
3. Empower members.
4. Focus on value.
5. Build strong relationships.
6. Leverage technology.
7. Measure and evaluate.
8. Communicate effectively.
9. Lead with vision.
10. Foster a culture of excellence.

Expert Insights and Case Studies

In addition to these core principles, the book is packed with expert insights and real-world case studies from associations that have successfully navigated radical change. You'll learn from the experiences of organizations such as:

- The American Society of Association Executives (ASAE)
- The American Marketing Association (AMA)

- The National Association of Realtors (NAR)
- The American Library Association (ALA)
