

The Art of Living Well and Finding Happiness According to Your Star Sign

Have you ever wondered why you are the way you are? Why do you have certain personality traits and why do you tend to make certain choices in life? Astrology can provide some answers to these questions. It is the study of the movements and relative positions of celestial bodies and their influence on human affairs. Astrologers believe that the position of the stars and planets at the time of your birth can shape your personality, your strengths, and weaknesses, and even your life path.
