A Mother's Grief

The novel follows the story of Sarah, a mother who is struggling to come to terms with the death of her young daughter, Lily. Lily was just five years old when she was tragically killed in a car accident.

Sarah is consumed by grief and guilt. She can't understand why her daughter was taken from her and she can't seem to find peace. She withdraws from her family and friends, and she begins to question everything she thought she knew about life and death.

A Family Torn Apart

Sarah's grief also takes a toll on her family. Her husband, John, is struggling to cope with his own grief and he doesn't know how to help Sarah. Their other children, Emily and Michael, are also affected by Lily's death. Emily is withdrawn and quiet, while Michael is angry and rebellious.

The family is torn apart by grief and they are all struggling to find their way.

A Search for Understanding

In her search for understanding, Sarah turns to therapy, religion, and even the supernatural. She is desperate to find some way to make sense of her daughter's death and to find peace.

Sarah's journey is a difficult one, but it is also a journey of hope. She learns to accept her grief and she finds a way to move on with her life.

A Haunting and Heartbreaking Story

The Burial of Child is a haunting and heartbreaking story, but it is also a story of hope. It is a story about the power of love and the resilience of the human spirit.
