In the wake of the 2008 financial crisis, many investors vowed that they would never make the same mistakes again. They swore off risky investments, embraced diversification, and vowed to stay disciplined. However, as the market has continued to climb, many of those same investors have become complacent. They have forgotten the lessons of the past and are once again taking on too much risk.

This time, however, is different. The global economy is facing a number of unprecedented challenges, including the COVID-19 pandemic, the war in Ukraine, and the rising cost of living. These challenges are creating a perfect storm for a market correction. So, it is more important than ever to invest wisely.

This Time Will Be Different will teach you how to:

- Identify the risks and opportunities in the new market cycle
- Position your portfolio for success
- Avoid the mistakes of the past
- Stay disciplined and achieve your financial goals

This book is essential reading for anyone who wants to succeed in the new market cycle. It will help you protect your wealth and achieve your financial goals.
