Detective Inspector Rupert Carter, known for his sharp wit and unwavering determination, is assigned to the baffling case. As he delves into the investigation, he uncovers a web of secrets, hidden agendas, and questionable motives among the passengers and crew.

With each passing hour, the pressure intensifies as the bishop's fate hangs in the balance. Carter races against time, meticulously piecing together the puzzle, scrutinizing every detail, and interrogating suspects to uncover the truth. As the investigation progresses, he encounters a cast of intriguing characters, each with their own connection to the missing bishop.

There's Eleanor, the bishop's enigmatic secretary, who seems to know more than she's willing to reveal. Father Andrew, a young and ambitious priest with a troubled past, who may hold the key to the bishop's disappearance. And James, a wealthy businessman with a shady reputation, who has his own reasons for keeping secrets.

As Carter delves deeper into the investigation, he uncovers a conspiracy that reaches far beyond the confines of the train. He must navigate a dangerous labyrinth of deception, where trust is a rare commodity and the line between friend and foe is blurred.

With each revelation, Carter draws closer to the truth, but the stakes are high, and the consequences of his actions could be dire. Will he be able to unravel the mystery of the missing bishop before it's too late?

Reviews
